Italian design studio Pospettiva Design has come up with a sofa that all book-lovers, or irony-loving hipsters, will enjoy.

'Book', created by designer Randy Colombo, spells out the word in bubbly letters, with the 'K' acting as a makeshift bookstand. The sofa is perfect for informal and fun spaces, as the creators wrote on their website, "the sofa has a charming 'pop' soul to fit every living space, where informality reigns and where friends gather".

The sofa comes in 20 different color combinations, has two- and three-seat options, is water-repellent, and hypoallergenic.
